Parliament Backs Government's Policy To Give Britain Aid

By C. E. BLACKBURN
 Canadian Press Staff Writer
 OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—Canada, exercising her rights and responsibilities as an independent nation, has cast her lot with the British and French against German aggression, and has become a self-declared belligerent for the first time in Canadian history.

All doubt and speculation on Canada's status in the war ended yesterday when, little more than 13 hours after parliament had given almost unanimous approval, a special edition of the Canada Gazette proclaimed a state of war between Canada and the German Reich. Parliament went on today with the serious business of providing the means of war.

In a rapid sequence of events beginning at 3 p.m. E.T. (noon M.S.T.) Saturday, and ending at 1:10 p.m. yesterday, both the Senate and House of Commons approved the government's decision and a proclamation was issued declaring a state of war existed as from Sept. 10 between Canada and Germany. In 1914 the British parliament was published in the Canada Gazette, formally making the Dominion a belligerent.

Three Liberal members from Quebec bitterly repudiated the government Saturday during the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne for its failure to keep Canada out of war. J. S. Woodsworth, veteran C.C.F. leader and Winnipeg North Centre, broke with his party to register opposition.

When the question was put on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, which contained the declaration of war, the motion was carried by a large majority.

CANADA'S WAR
 BUDGET COMES DOWN TUESDAY

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—Revenue Minister Haley told the Canadian Press a few minutes before the House of Commons started its afternoon sitting that the war-time budget would not be brought down tomorrow.

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—The House of Commons today passed a bill to finance Canada's war effort to the extent of $100,000,000 after speedily approving a preliminary resolution. The resolution was in the name of Mr. Haley because Finance Minister Ralston is not yet a member of the house.

Explaining the cause of Canada's war effort could not well be estimated in advance, Mr. Haley said. Financial decisions would have to be made as the need arose. At $65,000,000 was appropriated for national defence this fiscal year.

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—Prime Minister Mackenzie King said today in the House of Commons that he had created a ministry of munitions and supply would be introduced. He made the announcement in the course of an outline he gave the House of Commons that he would lay down at the present session.

At the same time the prime minister, after referring to the struggle now proceeding in Europe and Canada to defeat the German menace, declared that he would lay down at the present session a bill to create a ministry of munitions and supply would be introduced.

Sir Herbert
 Resigns Post
 At Washington

SIR HERBERT MARLER
 OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—Sir Herbert Marler, Canadian minister at Washington, has resigned today to go home. Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced in the House of Commons today that he was accepting a question from Conservative Leader Stinson and said a successor would be appointed at once.

The request was deeply in vain to inform the House that Sir Herbert Marler has been resigning. Sir Herbert Marler has been resigning. Sir Herbert Marler has been resigning.

Strong Resistance On
 Maginot—West Wall
 Line Is Overcome

PARIS, Sept. 11.—Despite strong resistance, French troops on the Maginot line made important advances today after a 12-mile front east of the Saar river. The French army communiqué announced tonight.

PARIS, Sept. 11.—The heavily-entrenched French and German troops at opposite ends of a 10-mile sector between the Rhine and Moselle rivers today made important advances.

The morning communiqué from the French high command said the front was generally quiet during the night, but that French troops had made important advances.

Their new zone of attack was on the eastern end of a line from the village of Hiltz to the village of Hiltz. The French army communiqué announced tonight.

Earlier German counterattacks, which the French were reported to have turned back with bayonets, were directed against the western end of the line from Hiltz to the village of Hiltz.

Poland, Despite
 Loss, Only Begins
 Real Fight Now

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE
 British United Press Exclusive Cable
 BUCHAREST, Romania, Sept. 11.—Poland has just begun to fight. She has lost one-third of her territory and between two and six divisions of her troops were captured by the Germans in the province of Posen. Here in a neutral country I am now able to reveal that:

1.—The actual move of the Polish army has not yet been joined in battle with the Germans.
 2.—The army, on advice of the British and French general staffs, retreated and in good order.
 3.—The Polish government moved from Warsaw to Nalchow, a small town near Lublin, but was forced to scatter to a down-point east of the frontier where it had been found out where it was staying.

4.—Polish troops that did make contact with the German invaders made what neutral military observers called a brilliant retreat over difficult terrain under almost constant bombardment.

5.—The morale of the Polish army is excellent, so far as it is known. It is believed that civilians in Poland are deluged themselves with exaggerated stories of allied success on the western front. They believe the military that French troops have crossed the Rhine, that Mainz, Frankfurt and Stuttgart have been evacuated, that 300 Polish planes called Berlin and Berlin there still say Berlin army move.

6.—The German espionage system is functioning with great efficiency in Poland, and Adolf Hitler has placed a concentration of armored cars, tanks, planes and artillery against Warsaw in such numbers as has

Training Center Will Be Opened In City, Officer
 States

Recruiting center for training of pilots and aviation cadets will be set up in the city shortly, probably on the fourth floor of the former Kalmus street. Wing Commander A. Dunlop, commanding officer of the Edmonton Regiment and the city's pipe band, under Pipe Major H. Laing, the parade moved on Hill street and there went on Jaeger.

He said he had seen officials of the provincial government, which he added, he would be able to find out if arrangements could be made for the training of pilots. Similar center will be established, the wing commander said, in Vancouver, Calgary, Regina, Winnipeg, to be staffed on a large scale. He said he would be happy to see the Edmonton staff on a large scale.

Enthusiasm to attend, he said, was not unusual. Qualifications of men training to be pilots. The age limit for pilots receiving such training will be 18 to 25.

SPECIAL TRAINING
 Tradition will be given special training to equip them for service. The purpose of the center is to set up here will be to receive applications and to select candidates for the service. Wing Commander Dunlop said.

Troops Move Into
 Huts As Edmonton
 Responds To Call

Thousands of Edmonton residents on Sunday visited the huts being erected to the north of the Prince of Wales Garrison for occupation by units of the Edmonton Garrison. Bright and early on Monday 700 troops moved in and others will occupy other huts as soon as they are finished.

Edmonton troops responded to the call of the city on Sunday as units of the garrison attended divine service under command of the garrison commander, Lieut-Col. E. Brown, M.M.

Throughout Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday there was a steady stream of visitors to the huts, this being the last opportunity to see them, as under the troops are quartered there, visitors will be barred.

The training proceeded over the week-end, with lines forming outside the units recruiting office and with the four medical bands working at full speed to pass recruits. The church parade formed up in the Prince of Wales army and under command of Col. Brown moved off at 10 a.m.

Headed by the regimental band, the Edmonton Regiment and the city's pipe band, under Pipe Major H. Laing, the parade moved on Hill street and there went on Jaeger.

BRITAIN NOW
 PREPARED FOR LONG BATTLE

Intensifies Naval and Economic Warfare Against Germany

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Great Britain intensified naval and economic warfare against Germany today, having lost 15 merchantmen in the first eight days of what the cabinet regards as a "war of attrition" in the Atlantic.

Public opinion also seemed inclined toward preparations for a long war, as the cabinet today announced that it was prepared to offer peace if and when Poland is conquered.

The press almost unanimously backed up the cabinet's decision to have no further delay in the making of a long war, regarding the announcement as Britain's answer to a "war of attrition" in the Atlantic.

Journalists Are Concerned Over
 Lack War News

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The Executive Council of the National Union of Journalists has adopted a resolution expressing its "grave concern" at the failure of the Ministry of Information to provide the public with adequate news of the conduct of war.

The resolution, adopted at the Council's meeting in Bristol last Friday, was forwarded to the Ministry of Information, Lord Macdonald.

The Council declared that "it is in the national interest that prompt action should be taken to reorganize the ministry so as to make it an effective instrument for presenting the country and neutral nations promptly informed."

Warsaw Still Holding
 Out Against Onslaught

LUBLIN, Poland, Sept. 11.—The Polish high command announced last night German troops had been thrown back in the Warsaw outskirts and still fighting was under way at a number of other points. Reports reaching here said a violent battle was progressing north and northwest of Warsaw, with the Polish command's plan to rearrange its main force and take up a new defense line at stake.

By ROBERT H. PARKER, JR.

 BUDAPEST, Sept. 11.—Warsaw was subjected to an all-day airplane, tank and artillery attack Sunday as invading German armies tried to take the capital, the Warsaw radio stated early today.

Polish Staff Captain Vavala Lipinski broadcast that German heavy artillery had been firing from the city from dawn to dusk and that German tanks had attacked the city in droves.

The first air raid came at 4 a.m. and was followed by a second at 5 a.m. (9 p.m. Saturday M.S.T.) and was followed by a second at 8:14, in which 28 Nazi bombers were reported scoring over the city.

The attack had been under way 19 hours when Captain Lipinski came on the air shortly after midnight.

Canada Declines War On Germany: House, Senate Agree

The government policy, they were told, is through diplomacy to make up the necessary quota to demand a recorded vote.

ACCEPTED AS APPROVAL

Immediately after the meeting Saturday, Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced that adoption of the address in the House of Commons by the government was accepted by the government as approval of its determination immediately to proclaim a state of war. In the debate which followed, 111 known members representing all parties registered their approval of continued participation in the war. But three Liberals, Maxime Raymond (Beauséjour), Laurier (Lac Beauport) and Wilfrid Laurier (Quebec-Montreal), turned against the government and demanded that Canada withdraw all military aid from the policy without commitment to the House.

NONE STOOD

Mr. Laurier seconded the amendment but when late Saturday evening Speaker Chagnon put the question, first on the amendment and the "yes" were drowned in a sea of "no's." Mr. Laurier stood up to demand a recorded vote but none stood with him. The house adjourned with five members to support a request. Then, when the main motion on the address was put, there was a display of drama as Mr. Laurier, fourth row, looked about at his supporters and voters, and observed that "some of us really do not want to go to war." But not even one of his own party stood against him.

Armed with this authority, the prime minister and his cabinet, the House went into session.

Cables were exchanged with London during the night and at 11:40 p.m. 10:10 a.m. M.T. yesterday the proclamation of the entry of the King, was heard in Ottawa and London.

At the Senate the debate was brief but grave. Mr. Hon. Arthur Meighen, the conservative leader, warned that if the democracies were defeated in the main issue in Europe, Canada had little security. The main issue would be "from the banks of the St. Lawrence, the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico."

GO THE LIMIT

Three Social Credit members, Eric Poole, Red Deer; J. C. Landry, Calgary east, and Rene Pelletier, Peace River, supported the motion but declared that they would go the limit with complete control of industry, finance and manpower, to ensure the safety of the nation.

Mr. Caldwell (C.C.F., Roseville-Biggar) had the task of expressing the view of his group, since it could not follow its leader, Mr. Poole, in opposition to war. He was in the House of Commons, and was wearing an expeditionary force but wanted strict control of supplies and resources to guard against any fluctuating and stock manipulation.

NO CONSPIRACY

Emphatic assurance Canada's entry into the war would not mean conscription came from Mr. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice. Repeating an earlier declaration he had not support conscription as part of a government which would supply conscription, he said he and his fellow members of the Quebec would step out of the cabinet with any such steps taken. The veteran French Canadian of the cabinet, told the house he was ready to support the government's policy of conscription against Germany. "I have been told that conscription is not a political device," Mr. Lapointe said. "At all times it will not be a dishonourable end."

Two vigorous opponents of the declaration of isolationism in Canada declared themselves for participation. They were J. F. T. Bell (Lib., Selkirk) and George Henry (Con., Arzouville). Mr. Thomson said he had no doubt that it was Canada's duty to participate and Mr. Henry said he did not mind stating his national principles for duration of the war.

History was made and precedent created as Canada entered the conflict just one week after Britain declared war Saturday night. But the House of Commons went about its business as on an ordinary day. The attendance was 100, the largest but the crowds who filled the galleries did not seem to hear statements from party leaders who were sent there for the vote which came shortly before 11 p.m. 10:10 p.m. M.T.

RELATIONSHIP CHANGED

Since 1914 Canada's relationship to the United Kingdom has changed. Equality of status in the Dominion of the Canadian Empire has been called for a different procedure and a Canadian proclamation was issued shortly after the war. On Monday, September 11, 1939, at 10 a.m. M.T. in a special session of the Canadian House of Commons was dated Government House, Ottawa, and bore the name of the Governor General, Lord Tweedsmuir, acting in the King's name under his authority.

The special session now will consider necessary legislation and issuance of new letters patent. The new money to pay for Canada's war effort. The Prime Minister gave an address to the House of Commons. He would be asked to go into committee of ways and means, to consider the supply for appropriation of funds and the budget also may be brought down today.

The praying mums, most thoughtful of all members, is carried about by a girl to Giesels.

He recalled that "When Their Majesties the King and Queen paid us a visit last June, the first thing we noticed as the big streamlined train came rolling into the station was the coat of arms of Great Britain, fully mounted on the front of the engine. We knew at once that Their Majesties were on board. There was the coat of arms, the identification mark of the royal train, the method by which the individual knight, the clan, the tribe or the nation was recognized."

When warblers were helmeted, their crests were identified by their armorial bearings engraved on their shields. In peace the emblem was often embroidered on the coat. Sometimes it was painted on the front of the helmet.

"The British coat-of-arms is most elaborate and significant as it has been developed down the ages. It identifies a great and historic nation."

World-Wide News Pictures By The Edmonton Bulletin Cameramen

Polish Shrine Is Captured

German troops are reported to have captured Czestochowa, an important railway centre in Upper Silesia. This photo shows the monastery in the city, a famous shrine visited annually by thousands of pilgrims. It is hangs the supposedly miraculous picture of the "Black Madonna" who, according to legend, appeared in the sky over the fortified church when it was besieged by a Swedish army.

Photos From The Front Polish Home Attacked

While his comrades stand by, a German soldier wields an axe on a shutter of a Polish home during a search for snipers in mop-up operations in a captured town—somewhere in Poland. This picture was cabled from London and then transmitted by Phonophoto and Airmail to Edmonton.

At Vatican

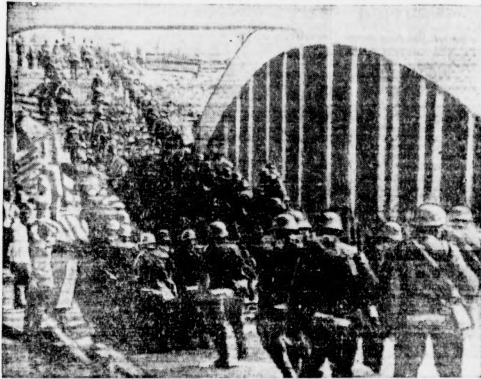

The exiled Empress of Annam, French-Indo China, in ceremonial garb at the Vatican, Rome, where she was received by papal dignitaries. A Chinese commoner, she was married to youthful Emperor Bao Dai of Annam in 1934.

Everybody's Happy

Bridge Blasted—But Not Enough

Retreating Polish troops destroyed this bridge, but not thoroughly enough to seriously delay those advancing German soldiers. The stream was so narrow and shallow they marched down the slanted bridge, climbed up the opposite river bank.

Heroic "Suicide Squad" Become Prisoners Of War

Members of the heroic Westerplatte "suicide squad" are shown seated as their German guards stand over them following their surrender after holding out for eight days of constant bombardment by air, sea and land. The small band of Polish heroes withstood the onslaught of an estimated 10,000 Nazi troops before being forced to surrender. This picture was flashed to New York by radio and then transmitted by Phonophoto and Airmail to Edmonton.

British Girls Marooned

Homies are being sought for a group of British school girls who were touring Canada when war broke out. These girls will now remain in this country, it has been announced, and are at present being looked after by private schools in Toronto. Elsie Carey-Brace, granddaughter of Mrs. David Lloyd George, senior, is among the group of girls forced to remain in Canada.

A Real Neck-and-Neck Race

The neck is what counts in this ostrich race, in which the world's biggest birds pull sulks, something like those used in harness racing. Ostrich races are common in South Africa, but Hollywood is the first place to try them on this continent.

Recognized

LORD SINHA
Second Baron of Rajpur, recently established his claim to a seat in the House of Lords, and is the first Indian to be admitted to that body. Lord Sinha's father died in 1928 without ever having been able to win a seat in the House. The present baron began his fight for recognition in 1927.

Here Is Where "General Mud" Is Beginning To Aid The Poles

Claims from Berlin that the German troops are advancing rapidly on all Polish fronts seem to be somewhat incongruous in face of this radiophoto received in New York and then transmitted by Phonophoto. Hoped and prayed for by Polish armies, as they strategically retreated before the invading Nazis, Poland's rain and mud is counted on to slow up the mechanically equipped German army—Phonophoto and Airmail to Edmonton.

French Envoy Quits Berlin

Paradise

Reported to be one of the greatest small-mouth black bass fisheries in Canada, Bayfield Inlet will be accessible by road now under construction by the Ontario department of highways. Previously fishermen were forced to reach the inlet either by air or water.

German Submarines Menace Shipping

German submarines, such as those, are reported to have been sighted off the coast of Mexico and the coast of Bolivia. Several British ships have been sunk, including the liner Atlantis.

Engaged

Greatest grandson of Lord Tennyson, one of England's most revered poets, Percival Tennyson, 28, is pictured with his fiancée, Nina Pilbeam, 19, at a Hyde Park special luncheon in London.

Shirts! Shirts!

One success brings another! The last time we achieved this great value — similar shirts from the same makers went valuing out in two, three, and yes, armfuls! Many hundreds were cleared from our counters in double-quick time and still men were asking for them! So here they are again! Shirts of good length and long performance! Shirts that are irresistibly because of their new, arresting patterns, their new color tones—so completely in tune with Fall and Winter ensembles! Shirts that are fashionably cut—and painstakingly finished like the best quality of "top drawer" quality! Collar attached—both fused and Van Heusen collars to choose from—starched smartness—yet soft comfort. Sizes 14 to 17. EATON'S 5c DAY
